

Time Life Medical Video Series

“at Time of Diagnosis” distributed by Milner-Fenwick

This award-winning series, featuring former surgeon general C. Everett Koop, M.D., will be a source of valuable information to your patients and their families. The videos thoroughly review each topic providing an explanation of the diagnosis and the options for treatment and management. The videos, are hosted by TV journalists, including Linda Ellerbee, Boyd Matson, and Mike Schneider. Commentary from top national experts in each field of medicine is combined with high quality animation and footage of actual patients sharing their experiences. Most of the videos are 30 minutes in length. The exercise videos are 75 minutes.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Due to the special pricing, free previews are not available for this series. However, every purchase comes with a 15 day money back guarantee. Checks, credit cards and institutional purchase orders accepted. All videos are copyrighted and may not be duplicated, digitized, broadcast or cablecast without written permission from Milner-Fenwick, Inc.

WINNER OF MANY VIDEO AWARDS

The programs are divided into 4 parts:

- Understanding the Diagnosis

What's going on inside the body and what were the potential causes.

- What Happens Next

Types of professionals the patient may encounter, how a condition is monitored and how day-to-day life may change.

- Treatment and Management

An exploration of the options for treatment and management of a condition.

- Issues and Answers

A look at the practical issues surrounding the condition and insightful answers to the most common questions.
